

HOUSE STANDS BY CONFEREES

Insists That the Government Pay the Cost of Proposed Meat Inspection.

SPEECH OF WADSWORTH

MINORITY UNABLE TO SECURE ROLL CALL.

Washington, June 28.—Mr. Wadsworth called up the partial conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill in the house today and it was agreed to without discussion.

Mr. Wadsworth then moved that the house insist on its disagreement to the meat inspection amendment. This was adopted on a division, 125 to 43.

Then Mr. Wadsworth sprang a surprise by sending to the desk a resolution that the sense of the house be that the conferees do not recede from its amendment known as the meat inspection amendment and the house was face to face with a contest with the senate.

Wadsworth's Platform.

Mr. Wadsworth, after referring to the disagreement about the meat inspection amendment, insisted that it was not necessary, passed to the legal questions involved. His platform was: The passage of the bill is necessary for the protection of foreign commerce and for the benefit of the public health.

A vigorous protest against placing any charge on the packers was made by Mr. Burison of Texas. The packer, he said, would immediately shift the burden on the cattle grower.

Mr. Humphrey of Washington talked about the "devil in hell" in conjunction with the packers paying the cost of inspection, and inveighed against their insulating demands.

Wanted to Be Right.

Mr. Henry of Texas wanted to be right on the question, and said he would vote that the government should pay the cost. He called attention to the quarantine bill, which provided that the government should pay the cost.

"Rally round the conferees," was the slogan of Mr. Payne of New York. "Stand by the judgment of the conferees," he said, "and let the government pay the cost."

The resolution that it was the sense of the house that the conferees recede to recede was then adopted, 125 to 43. The advocates of making the packers pay for the inspection endeavored to secure a roll call, but only nineteen members demanded it.

COULD NOT REST NIGHT OR DAY

With Irritating Skin Humor—Whole Body Affected—Scalp Itched All the Time and Hair Began to Fall Out—Wonderful Result From APPLICATION OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I am never without Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment since I tried them last summer. About the latter part of July my whole body began to itch. I did not take much notice of it at first, but it began to get worse all the time, and then I began to get uneasy and tried all kinds of baths and other remedies that were recommended for skin humors; but I became worse all the time. My hair began to fall out and my scalp itched all the time. I would get in bed and get warm, my whole body would begin to itch and my finger nails would keep it irritated, and it was not long before I could not rest night or day. A friend asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I did, and the first application helped me wonderfully. For about four weeks I would take a hot bath every night and then apply the Cuticura Ointment to my whole body; and I kept getting better, and by the time I used four boxes of Cuticura I was entirely cured, and my hair stopped falling out, but I continue to use the Cuticura on my scalp. It keeps all dandruff out and scalp is always clean. I always use Cuticura Ointment on my face after shaving, and have found nothing to equal it. I will never be without it." D. E. Blankenship, 319 N. Del. St., Oct. 27, 1905. Indianapolis, Ind.

RECOMMENDED TO ALL MOTHERS

"I have used Cuticura Ointment for chafing of infants, and as they grew older all skin diseases were given treatment with that and the Cuticura Soap. I never found it necessary to call a doctor, as these Remedies are a sure cure, if used as directed. I am glad to recommend them to all mothers." Sincerely yours, Mrs. F. A. Kennard, June 21, 1905. ## STACKPOLE IS HELD BY COURT

Alleged Murderer of Scheck Did Not Employ a Lawyer to Defend Him.

Los Angeles, June 28.—The preliminary hearing of Ernest G. Stackpole, charged with the murder of Joel Scheck, was commenced this morning before Judge Judge Rose. Stackpole is without an attorney and is being held in the county jail.

Stackpole looked steadily at the witness for a moment, slightly moving his lips as if he was trying to say something. Reluctantly, he said with nonchalance, "All right," accepting the first word of the phrase.

Mrs. Nettie Schall testified that Stackpole on the morning of the coroner's inquest attempted to get her to swear to a falsehood by declaring that he was reading a newspaper, when soon after the shooting he was found in his room with the light burning.

Stackpole was this afternoon held to answer to the charge of murder, and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff by Judge Rose, who held that the evidence was sufficient to hold Stackpole for the crime.

NEURALGIA CURED

There is No Equal to These BARGAINS

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure neuralgia there is no room to doubt. So many severe cases of this painful disease have yielded to these pills that the sufferer who is prevented by prejudice from trying the remedy deserves little sympathy.

Mrs. Charles Schultz, of 179 Thomas street, Newark, N. J., suffered for seven years with neuralgia which attacked her heart and which did not yield to the usual remedies. The story of the cure is best told in her own words. She says:

"I had scarlet fever and it left me with a weak heart. Then I took cold and a severe pain settled in the region of my heart. My suffering was almost beyond description. I could not talk and the pain caught me at every breath. The awful pains would come on suddenly and I would have to sit right down. I could not walk and would get dizzy for a time."

"I was confined to bed for four weeks at one time and nothing seemed to do me any good. I was under a physician's care for months. He pronounced my trouble neuralgia of the heart and prescribed for me. The capsules he gave me relieved me for a time but the pain came back again."

"Finally Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me by a lady whose husband had been cured of paralysis by them and I decided to give the pills a good trial. While I was on the second box I began to see an improvement, the pains became less frequent and at last I was entirely cured. This was some time ago but I have had no relapse and have been in good health ever since."
